From Tuesday September 19, to Saturday September 23, 1786.

St. James's, September 23.

YESTERDAY being the Anniverſary of Their Majeſties Coronation, there was a numerous and ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to compliment Their Majeſties on the Occaſion. The Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired at One o'Clock; and in the Evening there were Illuminations and other public Demonſtrations of Joy.

St. James's, September 23.

THE following Addreſſes of the Biſhop, Dean and Clergy of Briſtol, and of the Biſhop, Precentor and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the Reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. David, have been preſented to the King by His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Clergy of Briſtol, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty, and to teſtify our Gratitude to the Divine Goodneſs for ſo ſignally protecting your moſt Sacred Perſon from the late daring and violent Attack.

We are too ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy, under your Majeſty's paternal Care and Government, to view without Alarm ſo atrocious an Attempt.

Permit us to renew our unfeigned Profeſſions of inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe; and may the ſame gracious Arm, which has hitherto preſerved, long continue to your faithful Subjects a Life ſo eſſentially connected with their Civil and Religious Liberties.

May your Majeſty reign in the Affections of a free and loyal People, an Example of unaffected Piety and ſtrict Morality, until it ſhall pleaſe the Divine Diſpoſer of all Events to exalt you, full of Years, to a Crown of Glory.

[ Signed by the Biſhop and 40 of the Clergy. ]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Precentor and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the Reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. David.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Precentor and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the Reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. David, with Hearts full of affectionate Concern for the Safety of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty our ſincereſt Expreſſions of Happineſs, for your late Eſcape from an unnatural Attempt upon a Life of ſo great Importance to theſe Kingdoms.

In your Majeſty's Perſon are involved, not only the many Bleſſings we enjoy under ſo good a Governor, but alſo the very Being and Exiſtence of our excellent Conſtitution. With the Supreme Guardian and Supporter of our Civil and Religious Eſtabliſhment the whole Syſtem of Government muſt ſtand or fall. May they long ſubſiſt together inviolate, free from the Attacks either of Phrenzy or Folly. May the Almighty, as in the late Inſtance of providential Care over your Royal Perſon, be evermore your Defender and Keeper. May your Majeſty continue to rule over us for many Years to come, diſpenſing the Bleſſings of a mild and gracious Government to all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, and reigning even in a Country of Freedom, at leaſt in this Inſtance, moſt abſolutely in the Hearts and Affections of all who are committed to your Charge.

[ Signed by the Biſhop and 17 of the Clergy. ]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Norwich, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Norwich, attended by the Reverend the Archdeacons of Sudbury and Suffolk, and the Reverend Dr. Poyntz, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Norwich.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE diſtinguiſhed Bleſſings derived to this Kingdom, under your Majeſty's mild and happy Government, muſt naturally intereſt all Deſcriptions of Men in the Welfare and Security of your Perſon.

The Guardians and Miniſters of that pure Religion eſtabliſhed in this Country have peculiar Reaſon to rejoice in your Safety; ſenſible as they muſt be of the Advantage which the great Object of their Concern receives, not more from your Power and Protection, than from your Example in the conſtant Practice of every Chriſtian Duty, both public and private.

Among

Among theſe, the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Norwich preſume to aſſure your Majeſty of the unfeigned Joy they feel on your late providential Deliverance from imminent and unſuſpected Danger.

May that Power, which hath now reſcued, continue long to preſerve your Majeſty from the various Accidents and Calamities of Life, a Bleſſing and a Pattern to your own Illuſtrious Family, to a loyal and affectionate People, and to all Mankind.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 173 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham, has been preſented to the King by Lieutenant-Colonel Egerton, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham, beg Leave to join with the moſt zealous of your Subjects in ſincere Congratulations upon your Eſcape from the Danger to which your Sacred Life was lately expoſed by the frantic Impulſe of Inſanity.

Actuated by Principles of Duty and unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, your Family and your Government, and truly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Benefits which we enjoy under our moſt gracious Sovereign, we offer up our moſt fervent Prayers that the Almighty Diſpoſer of Events who has hitherto protected, may continue to preſerve your Majeſty's invaluable Life, and that you may long reign over a free, grateful and loyal People. Witneſs the Epiſcopal Seal of the Dioceſe of Durham, this Fifteenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

The following Addreſs of the German Reformed Proteſtant Congregation in the Savoy, has been preſented to the King by the Reverend Charles Godfrey Woide and David Peyer Imhoff, Eſq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamben in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the German Reformed Proteſtant Congregation in the Savoy,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſter, Veſtry, and Members of the German Reformed Proteſtant Congregation, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our moſt humble and ſincere Congratulations on the happy Eſcape of the late atrocious Attempt on your Majeſty's Life.

Deeply impreſſed with the innumerable Civil and Religious Bleſſings we enjoy, in common with the Reſt of our Fellow Subjects, under your Majeſty's moſt gracious Government and Protection, we have offered our warmeſt and moſt grateful Acknowledgements to Almighty God, for ſhielding your Majeſty's Perſon in the Moment of unſuſpecting Danger; and at whoſe Altar we ſhall never ceaſe ardently to pray for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Sacred Life, and that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and bleſſed.

At the Savoy, September 20, 1786.

[ Signed by Charles Godfrey Woide, Miniſter, and 18 others. ]

The following Addreſs from the French Proteſtant Refugees has been preſented to the King by the Reverend Mr. Mauzy, attended by a Deputation from thoſe Bodies, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

SIRE,

LES Proteſtans François Réfugiés, pénétrés d'un Sentiment profond de Reſpect & de Fidélité pour laPerſonne Sacrée de votre Majeſtée, viennent ſe jetter humblement aux Pieds de votre Trône pour vous témoigner, Sire, l'Impreſſion douloureuſe qu'a fait ſur eux l'Attentat horrible commis contre votre Auguſte Perſonne, & la Joye vive & ſincère qu'ils ont reſſentie de ce qu'il a plû à la Providence d'en détourner le Coup affreux. Unis à tous vos Sujets, Sire, par des Liens communs de Loyauté, ils conſervent de plus précieuſement la Mémoire de la Protection dont les Rois vos Prédéceſſeurs ont honoré les François Réfugiés pour la Religion dans vos Royaumes, & que votre Majeſté daigne ſi généreuſement leur continuer. C'eſt à ces Titres, Sire, qu'ils ſe croyent appellés à faire éclater, dans cette Occaſion, les Sentimens qui les animent. Ils regardent la Conſervation de votre Majeſté & la Proſpérité de votre Illuſtre Famille comme eſſentielle au Bonheur de vos Peuples; & ne ceſſeront d'offrir au Souverain Arbitre des Rois & des Royaumes leurs humbles & ardentes Prieres pour qu'il lui plaiſe, de répandre ſur les Jours précieux de votre Majeſté toutes les Richeſſes de Sa Grace, & d'en prolonger l'heureux Cours juſqu'aux Bornes les plus reculées de la Vie humaine.

Au Nom de l'Aſſemblée Générale des Egliſes,

Samuel Mauzy, Modérateur.
Charles de Guiffardiere, Secretaire,
And 18 others.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, Aſſiſtants and Fellowſhip of Merchants Adventurers of England, reſiding in Hamburg, having been tranſmitted by John Coleman, Eſq; His Majeſty's Chargé d'Affaires at that City, to the Marquis of Carmarthen, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Aſſiſtants and Fellowſhip of Merchants Adventurers of England, reſiding in Hamburg, in General Court aſſembled, beg Permiſſion to approach the Throne with our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late horrid Attempt upon your Royal Perſon.

We rejoice at the ſignal Preſervation of a Life manifeſtly dear and of the greateſt Importance to your Majeſty's Royal Family, extenſive Dominions, and univerſally to the Intereſts of Humanity.

May your Majeſty long continue to reign with Glory in the Hearts of a happy and loyal People; and may the benign Influence of your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Royal Virtues deſcend with your Illuſtrious Name and Progeny to the lateſt Generations.

Given under the Common Seal of the above Fellowſhip, the Seventh Day of September, 1786.

Rich. Thornton, Governor.
John Blacker, Treaſurer.
Colin Roſs, Secretary.

The following Addreſs of the Commiſſioners of the River Wear, Fitters, Merchants, Ship-Owners and Inhabitants of the Town of Sunderland near the Sea, has been preſented to the King by the Marquis of Carmarthen: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Commiſſioners of the River Wear, Fitters, Merchants, Ship-Owners and Inhabitants of the Town, Port and Haven of Sunderland near the Sea, in the County of Durham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMpelled by Sentiments of Duty, and the moſt ardent Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, we, the Commiſſioners of the River Wear, Fitters, Merchants, Ship-Owners and Inhabitants of the Town, Port and Haven of Sunderland near the Sea, in the County of Durham, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, and to offer our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy and providential Eſcape from the late horrid and alarming Attempt upon your Sacred Perſon.

We moſt fervently pray that the ſame good Providence, which has been ſo eminently and ſignally diſplayed in your Majeſty's Preſervation, by averting the intended Blow, may continue to watch over your Majeſty, and every Branch of your Illuſtrious and Amiable Family, and that your Majeſty may very long and very happily reign over a free, loyal, and affectionate People.

Dated at Sunderland near the Sea aforeſaid, the Eleventh Day of September, 1786.

[ Signed by 41 Perſons. ]

The Four following Addreſſes having been tranſmittedto the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Counſellors of the Royal Borough of Irvine.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Counſellors of your Borough of Irvine, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations for your Majeſty's late providential Deliverance, Congratulations flowing from the warmeſt Affections; and we pray that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous over your free and happy People.

Signed in our Names and Preſence, and by our Appointment,

John Ferguſſon, Provoſt.

Council Chamber, Irvine,
September 15, 1786.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry and Freeholders of the County of Stafford, being thoroughly ſenſible of the ſincere Attachment of your Majeſty to the Conſtitution, and your conſtant Zeal and Attention to promote and ſecure the Welfare and Proſperity of your People, humbly beg Leave to lay at the Foot of your Throne our dutiful Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the Danger which lately threatened your Royal Perſon.

Such an alarming Attempt upon the Life of a Prince, ſo deſervedly dear to his People, will be tranſmitted in the Annals of this Country, with Marks of Horror and Deteſtation, to all future Ages.

That the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt mild and gracious Government may remain to us, we earneſtly pray that the Almighty will continue to guard and preſerve your Majeſty's invaluable Life, and to bleſs and protect your Illuſtrious Houſe, on which the Happineſs of the Nation ſo eſſentially depends.

[ Signed by 109 Perſons. ]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Heretors of the County of Fife, deeply impreſſed with the moſt affectionate Regard for your Royal Perſon, and with a Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs, which hath delivered your Majeſty from the Hand of an Aſſaſſin, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to offer our warm Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape.

Being duly ſenſible of the great Importance of your Majeſty's valuable Life to the Happineſs of your People, permit us to expreſs our earneſt Wiſhes, that it may pleaſe Almighty God to preſerve you for a Bleſſing to your Subjects, and that your Reign over them may be long and proſperous.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Cupar, September 12, 1786, by

Leven, Præſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculties, Principal and Profeſſors of the Univerſity of Glaſgow.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculties, Principal and Profeſſors of the Univerſity of Glaſgow, with all Humility approach your Throne, to teſtify our heartfelt Joy at this Seaſon of general Congratulation, and our Thankfulneſs to Almighty God for preſerving your Majeſty's invaluable Life, when an outrageous Violence, which might have proved ſo fatal to yourſelf, and ſo calamitous to your Kingdoms, was lately aimed againſt your Sacred Perſon.

Looking up to you as the Father of your People, and deeply ſenſible how truly at all Times you are devoted to the Happineſs and Proſperity of all Ranks over whom you reign, and to the beſt Intereſts of Learning and Religion, as well as to every laudable Object which tends to raiſe the Name and Character of the Britiſh Nation, we earneſtly pray that the ſame moſt gracious Providence may ever watch over you, and long preſerve your precious Life, as a Bleſſing to your Illuſtrious Family and to your loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Dated at the Univerſity of Glaſgow, in the Senate, the Sixth Day of September, 1786.

Graham, Chancellor.
R. Graham, Rector.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, has been preſented to the King by Thomas Wilkinſon, Eſq; Sheriff, attended by the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County, the Earl of Cheſterfield, Sir Henry Gott, the Rev. Thomas Willis, Willis, William Drake, ſen. Eſq; William Drake, jun. Eſq; and Richard Hopkins, Eſq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, beg Leave, with all Humility and Affection, to offer to your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family.

To theſe Profeſſions, with which your Majeſty's loyal County of Buckingham has ſo often been permitted to approach your Throne, we beg to be allowed to add our ſincereſt Congratulations to your Majeſty upon your late providential Eſcape, together with our earneſt Prayers for the Happineſs and Security of your Majeſty's Life, and for the Continuance of the Bleſſings which we enjoy under it.

Tho. Wilkinſon, Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, has been preſened to the King by the Earl of Coventry, Recorder of the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, in Common Council aſſembled, prompted by the moſt affectionate Attachment, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, to expreſs our moſt hearty Indignation at the late horrid Attempt on your Sacred Life, of ſuch high and important Conſequence to your Subjects.

We earneſtly hope that the ſame kind Providence, (greatly propitious to theſe Realms) which has ſo lately protected your Sacred Perſon from that Attempt, will not ever ſuffer either open Violence or ſecret Fraud to reach its Aim, but will preſerve your Royal Perſon in Security, Proſperity and Honor, and very long continue to a loyal and grateful People the invaluable Bleſſings which they have enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Reign.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the ſaid City, the Fourteenth Day of September, 1786.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, has been preſented to the King by the Hon. William Ward and Samuel Smith, jun. Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, in Common Hall aſſembled, animated with unfeigned and affectionate Loyalty, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, declaring the juſt Indignation we feel at the late horrid and impious Attempt on the Sacred Life of a Sovereign ſo uniformly good and gracious to all His Subjects.

We earneſtly pray, and aſſuredly hope, that the ſame good Providence, (greatly propitious to theſe Realms) which ſo lately ſhielded your Sacred Perſon in that moſt atrocious and daring Attempt, will not ſuffer any Weapon formed againſt you to proſper, but will ſtill preſerve your Royal Perſon in Safety, Health and Glory; and long, very long, continue to a loyal and thankful People the many great and invaluable Bleſſings of your Majeſty's wiſe and happy Reign, and tranſmit the ſame in your Auguſt and Royal Houſe to our lateſt Poſterity.

[ Signed by 66 Perſons. ]

The Two following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Catholicks of Ireland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Catholicks of Ireland, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy and providential Eſcape from the late horrid Attack on your Sacred Perſon.

It gives us the moſt poignant and heartfelt Pain, that an Attempt ſo baſe and degenerate could be made againſt the Life of the moſt tender Father of His People; and we are conſoled only in believing that it proceeded from Inſanity of Mind rather than Depravity of Heart.

Truly grateful for the eſſential Benefits we have received during your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, we muſt feel ourſelves particularly intereſted in every Circumſtance that regards the Welfare of the beſt of Sovereigns; and permit us to aſſure your Majeſty of our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of every Attempt to diſturb your private Peace, or the public Tranquility of your Dominions.

We ſupplicate the Supreme Being to grant to your Majeſty a long and happy Reign; and to continue the Crown of theſe Realms to your Illuſtrious Houſe unto its lateſt Poſterity.

Signed by Order,

Killeen, Chairman.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Antrim, aſſembled at Carrickfergus, at Summer Aſſizes, 1786, truly ſenſible of the many and great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late daring Attempt by an inſane Perſon againſt the Life of your Majeſty.

We admire your Majeſty's Firmneſs and Magnanimity of Mind on that Occaſion, and think it our Duty, as much as it is our Inclination, to expreſs our Joy and Satisfaction on an Event ſo intereſting to all yonr Majeſty's loving Subjects.

We humbly hope that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to accept this as the Effuſion of the Hearts and Sentiments of Men ready to ſacrifice their

Lives

Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Sacred Perſon and Government.

And we aſſure your Majeſty that it is our earneſt Prayer that your Majeſty may long reign the happy Sovereign of a free, loyal and united People.

[ Signed by the Governor, Sheriff and 22 other Perſons. ]

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Ayleſbury has been preſented to the King by the Right Hon. William Wyndham Grenville, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Buckingham being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Ayleſbury, impelled not leſs by Inclination than by a Senſe of Duty, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our moſt cordial Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape.

Senſible as we are of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under the mild Influence of your Majeſty's Government, and preſuming, from our own Feelings, that our Sovereign reigned not only over the Perſons, but in the Hearts of all His Subjects, it was with equal Horror and Aſtoniſhment we heard of the impious Attack on your Majeſty's Perſon, and we are perſuaded that through the whole Extent of your Majeſty's Dominions, none but a Lunatic can be found who would attempt to deprive our Country of a Life ſo juſtly dear to it.

[ Signed by 102 Perſons. ]

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Malmeſbury, has been preſented to the King by Edmund Wilkins, Eſq; High Steward, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE, the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Malmeſbury, in the County of Wilts, being the whole Body Corporate in our Common Court aſſembled, do approach the Throne of Majeſty, with a Tender of our ſincere Addreſs of Congratulation upon the providential Delivery and Safety of your Royal Perſon from the Attack of a frantic Aſſaſſin upon your Majeſty's Life, on which depends the Happineſs of your Royal Family, and Millions of affectionate and loyal Subjects.

That the Almighty God, in His great Goodneſs, will continue ever to guard your Auguſt and Sacred Perſon, and grant that your Majeſty, the Protector of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this free Country, may be bleſt with a long and proſperous Reign, in the Hearts of a free, confident, and grateful People, is the ſincere, unfeigned Prayer of your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough Corporate of Malmeſbury, in the County of Wilts.

In Teſtimony whereof, we the Alderman, High Steward and Capital Burgeſſes, have ſet our Hands, and Seal of our Borough.

[ Signed by 14 Perſons. ]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, in Common Hall aſſembled, animated with unfeigned and affectionate Loyalty, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, declaring the juſt Indignation we feel at the late horrid and impious Attempt on the Sacred Life of a Sovereign ſo uniformly good and gracious to all His Subjects.

We earneſtly pray, and aſſuredly hope, that the ſame good Providence, (greatly propitious to theſe Realms) which ſo lately ſhielded your Sacred Perſon in that moſt atrocious and daring Attempt, will not ſuffer any Weapon formed againſt you to proſper, but will ſtill preſerve your Royal Perſon in Safety, Health and Glory; and long, very long, continue to a loyal and thankful People the many great and invaluable Bleſſings of your Majeſty's wiſe and happy Reign, and tranſmit the ſame in your Auguſt and Royal Houſe to our lateſt Poſterity.

[ Signed by 66 Perſons. ]

The Two following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Catholicks of Ireland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Catholicks of Ireland, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy and providential Eſcape from the late horrid Attack on your Sacred Perſon.

It gives us the moſt poignant and heartfelt Pain, that an Attempt ſo baſe and degenerate could be made againſt the Life of the moſt tender Father of His People; and we are conſoled only in believing that it proceeded from Inſanity of Mind rather than Depravity of Heart.

Truly grateful for the eſſential Benefits we have received during your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, we muſt feel ourſelves particularly intereſted in every Circumſtance that regards the Welfare of the beſt of Sovereigns; and permit us to aſſure your Majeſty of our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of every Attempt to diſturb your private Peace, or the public Tranquility of your Dominions.

We ſupplicate the Supreme Being to grant to your Majeſty a long and happy Reign; and to continue the Crown of theſe Realms to your Illuſtrious Houſe unto its lateſt Poſterity.

Signed by Order,

Killeen, Chairman.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Antrim, aſſembled at Carrickfergus, at Summer Aſſizes, 1786, truly ſenſible of the many and great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late daring Attempt by an inſane Perſon againſt the Life of your Majeſty.

We admire your Majeſty's Firmneſs and Magnanimity of Mind on that Occaſion, and think it our Duty, as much as it is our Inclination, to expreſs our Joy and Satisfaction on an Event ſo intereſting to all yonr Majeſty's loving Subjects.

We humbly hope that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to accept this as the Effuſion of the Hearts and Sentiments of Men ready to ſacrifice their

Lives

Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Sacred Perſon and Government.

And we aſſure your Majeſty that it is our earneſt Prayer that your Majeſty may long reign the happy Sovereign of a free, loyal and united People.

[ Signed by the Governor, Sheriff and 22 other Perſons. ]

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Ayleſbury has been preſented to the King by the Right Hon. William Wyndham Grenville, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Buckingham, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Ayleſbury, impelled not leſs by Inclination than by a Senſe of Duty, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our moſt cordial Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape.

Senſible as we are of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under the mild Influence of your Majeſty's Government, and preſuming, from our own Feelings, that our Sovereign reigned not only over the Perſons, but in the Hearts of all His Subjects, it was with equal Horror and Aſtoniſhment we heard of the impious Attack on your Majeſty's Perſon, and we are perſuaded that through the whole Extent of your Majeſty's Dominions, none but a Lunatic can be found who would attempt to deprive our Country of a Life ſo juſtly dear to it.

[ Signed by 102 Perſons. ]

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Malmeſbury, has been preſented to the King by Edmund Wilkins, Eſq; High Steward, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE, the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Malmeſbury, in the County of Wilts, being the whole Body Corporate in our Common Court aſſembled, do approach the Throne of Majeſty, with a Tender of our ſincere Addreſs of Congratulation upon the providential Delivery and Safety of your Royal Perſon from the Attack of a frantic Aſſaſſin upon your Majeſty's Life, on which depends the Happineſs of your Royal Family, and Millions of affectionate and loyal Subjects.

That the Almighty God, in His great Goodneſs, will continue ever to guard your Auguſt and Sacred Perſon, and grant that your Majeſty, the Protector of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this free Country, may be bleſt with a long and proſperous Reign, in the Hearts of a free, confident, and grateful People, is the ſincere, unfeigned Prayer of your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough Corporate of Malmeſbury, in the County of Wilts.

In Teſtimony whereof, we the Alderman, High Steward and Capital Burgeſſes, have ſet our Hands, and Seal of our Borough.

[ Signed by 14 Perſons. ]

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tamworth, has been preſented to the King by John Calvert, jun. Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was peaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tamworth, in the Counties of Stafford and Warwick.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tamworth, with the moſt zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and impreſſed with the greateſt Degree of Gratitude for the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, humbly beg Leave to join in the general Voice of Joy and Congratulation on the Failure of the late Attempt, from which your Majeſty's Life was in ſuch imminent Danger, and devoutly pray, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, happy and united People.
